II. Circuit FLORIDA: A new Townhomes and Racetrack Club

debuted. Located on the south side of I-4 about halfway between Orlando and Tampa, near Auburndale. Last Saturday Robert, one of our brand ambassadors, and I were invited to an open house at the track. Paul Scarpello, Owner and Founder, showed us around and underscored the features and benefits of this amazing facility. The circuit is the main feature of the facility, but similar to an exclusive membership-based golf country club, the social aspect is an important part of the Circuit Florida experience. Members can relax within the club's lounge, socializing with other like-minded automotive enthusiasts while viewing the track from an elevated, panoramic window view, or from the club's roof deck. Finished and move-in ready condos start at $474,900 for the smaller floor plan. There are five floor plans to choose from with a variety of features. It's a tremendous facility, conveniently located and superbly thought out. The Club provides members and their guests with a private and personal venue to enjoy the use of their personal sports cars within a safe, controlled and challenging performance road course, along with member amenities and social events.

Membership: Club Members pay a one-time membership fee of $80,000 and club dues of $800 per month. There are 75 luxury condos available, a small number of corporate members leasing office or industrial space. Non-resident memberships are also available on a limited basis. Site tours are now available on an appointment basis. Please call Jarrett Novack, Sales Director directly at +1 863 220 7090 or +1 863 247 6900 or e-mail: Jarrett@CircuitFlorida.com .

Fast Lane Travel: We are scheduling a follow-up meeting with the track owner and his executives to add an additional driving enjoyment benefit for the members by offering some of our exclusive and fun European and US road tours. Details to follow.

III. My Final Thoughts: Family Stories

Source: My friend E. Yates

A teacher told her young class to ask their parents for a family story with a moral at the end of it, and to return the next day to tell their stories.

In the classroom the next day, Joe gave his example first, "My dad is a farmer, and we have chickens. One day we were taking lots of eggs to the market in a basket on the front seat of the truck when we hit a big bump in the road; the basket fell off the seat and all the eggs broke.

The moral of the story is not to put all your eggs in one basket." "Very good," said the teacher.

Next, Mary said, "We are farmers too. We had twenty eggs waiting to hatch, but when they did, we only got ten chicks. The moral of this story is not to count your chickens before they're hatched."

"Very good," said the teacher again, very pleased with the responses so far.

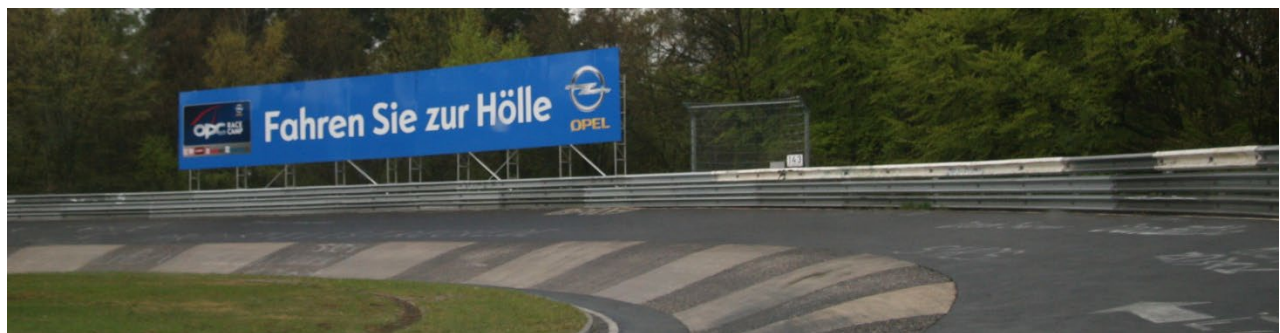

Next it was Dave's turn to tell his story:

"My dad told me this story about my Aunt Karen.... Aunt Karen was a flight engineer in the war and her plane got hit. She had to bail out over enemy territory and all she had was a bottle of whiskey, a machine gun, and a machete." "Go on," said the teacher, intrigued.

"Aunt Karen drank the whiskey on the way down to prepare herself. Then she landed right in the middle of a hundred enemy soldiers. She killed seventy of them with the machine gun until she ran out of bullets. Then she killed twenty more with the machete 'til the blade broke. And then she killed the last ten with her bare hands." "Good heavens," said the horrified teacher, "What did your father say was the moral of that frightening story?"

"Stay away from Aunt Karen when she's been drinking."

IV. Some more random pictures from our last trips

You must add this curve to your driving repertoire . . .where is it?

Who parks 10 PORSCHEs under the wings of an Antonov?
Where was that picture taken?

Stuttgart looks nothing like Detroit.

Please stay healthy and stay young; be happy and take good care of yourself...Let's look forward to the great times we will have together again on one of our fabulous PORSCHE Tours this year and let's look forward to 2024. I will see you soon in Stuttgart. Can't wait. Peter
