Final call for registering on the Macchina Veloce Ferrari Tour!

2025 Macchina Veloce Tour

Tuesday, October 14 – Sunday, October 26, 2025

Have you always wondered what makes Italian automobiles so special? The emotions and passion they ignite? Why are the Tifosi so animated and full of fervor and zeal? The Macchina Veloce tour this October will answer these questions and more!

Our adventure will begin on the shores of Lake Como, world-famous for its beauty. The hills above the lake will be covered in green, yellow, and red colors, the air will be crisp, and the summer crowds will be gone – what a magnificent time to visit Italy!

We will be staying in 4- and 5-star hotels and resorts and spend time in Como, Turin, Modena & Maranello, Verona and Brescia.

Motor Valley is our main destination where we will visit the Ferrari, Lamborghini and Pagani factories and museums with special guided tours and docents at our disposal.

Our guests have been granted unprecedented access to famous coach builders and design houses like Pininfarina, who created some of the most beautiful Prancing Horse silhouettes, Italdesign Giugiaro and of course Zagato, the oldest coachbuilder in existence.

World-famous restoration facilities Cremonini Classic and Bacchelli & Villa Restoration are also off-limits to the public, but we will be shown in intricate detail what it takes to win at Pebble Beach!

Culinary delights await us! Emilia Romagna is famous for its Prosecco, Parmigiano Reggiano and Prosciutto. We have made special arrangements to visit a balsamic vinegar production facility in Modena and will have a delicious lunch on the premises. We have reservations at Michelin star Ristorante Cavallino across from the Ferrari factory gates. Mamma Rossella will cook us an unforgettable dinner at Ristorante Montana, next to Pista di Fiorano.

Cultural wonders are also part of the program – from the center of power that is Turin, to the UNESCO World Heritage site of Modena, and of course Verona, with its Roman Coliseum, medieval and Renaissance architecture.

We can even arrange for you to drive a Ferrari or Lamborghini in the hills above Maranello, alongside the Mille Miglia route, or on a famous vintage rally stage.

Space for Macchina Veloce is limited due to the very tight regulations at some of the special places we will visit. This tour will sell out, please don't delay and book now!

My Final Thoughts:

Corporate Lesson 1

A man is getting into the shower just as his wife is finishing her shower when the doorbell rings. After a few seconds of arguing over which one should go and answer the doorbell, the wife gives up, quickly wraps herself up in a towel and runs downstairs.

When she opens the door, there stands Bob the next-door neighbor. Before she says a word, Bob says, "I'll give you $800 to drop that towel that you have on".

After thinking for a moment, the woman drops her towel and stands naked in front of Bob. After a few seconds, Bob hands her 800 dollars and leaves.

Confused, but excited about her good fortune, the woman wraps back up in the towel and goes back upstairs. When she gets back to the bathroom, her husband asks from the shower, "Who was that?"

"It was Bob the next-door neighbor," she lies.

"Great!" the husband says, "Did he say anything about the $800 he owes me?"

Moral of the story: If you share critical information pertaining to credit and risk in time with your stakeholders, you may be in a position to prevent avoidable exposure.

Corporate Lesson 2

A priest was driving along and saw a nun on the side of the road, he stopped and offered her a lift, which she accepted. She got in and crossed her legs, forcing her gown to open and reveal a lovely leg. The priest had a look and nearly had an accident.

After controlling the car, he stealthily slid his hand up her leg. The nun looked at him and immediately said, "Father, remember Psalm 129?" The priest was flustered and apologized profusely.

He forced himself to remove his hand. Changing gear, he let his hand slide up her leg again. The nun once again said, "Father, remember Psalm 129?"

Once again, the priest apologized "Sorry sister but the flesh is weak."

Arriving at the convent, the nun got out gave him a meaningful glance and went on her way.

On his arrival at the church, the priest rushed to retrieve a bible and looked up Psalm 129. It said, "Go forth and seek, further up, you will find glory."

Moral of the story: Always be well informed in your job, or you might miss a great opportunity.

Corporate Lesson 3

A sales rep, an administration clerk, and the manager are walking to lunch when they find an antique oil lamp.

They rub it and a Genie comes out in a puff of smoke. The Genie says, "I usually only grant three wishes, so I'll give each of you just one."

"Me first! Me first!" says the admin clerk. "I want to be in the Bahamas, driving a speedboat, without a care in the world. Poof! She's gone."

In astonishment, "Me next! Me next!" says the sales rep. I want to be in Hawaii, relaxing on the beach with my personal masseuse, an Endless supply of pina coladas and the love of my life." Poof! He's gone.

OK, you're up," the Genie says to the manager.

The manager says, "I want those two back in the office after lunch."

Moral of the story: Always let your boss have the first say.

Please stay healthy and happy. I'm looking forward to the great times we will have together again on one of the fabulous PORSCHE tours we are planning for 2026. I can't wait to get back to Tuscany in October. All the very best to you, Peter
