Welcome to My World

It's a magnificent place, one of THE most luxurious in the world. A contrast in ancient culture and amazing new wonders. An awesome sensational destination which everyone must experience at least once: DUBAI. We have spent $1,000's advertising and rolling out Dubai, as the crown jewel of our trips this year. Customers signed up . . . you guessed what happened. Of course, we cancelled the trip, gold-plated Porsches and all. Several of the folks that signed up were even considering still going – this is between Israel and Iran. But then the mullahs started to bomb DXB (Dubai Airport) and even some of the hotels. Thankfully, over half the group rolled their deposits into one of our popular European PORSCHE trips - i.e. THE two most popular: Twelve Alpine Passes and The Amazing Dolomites.

We refunded the tour deposits of the other half. Welcome to my world!!

Twelve Alpine Passes

However, you need not go without one of our fabulous PORSCHE trips this year: I highly recommend the 12 Alpine Passes: Germany, Austria, Switzerland, Italy and even a glimpse of Liechtenstein. There's no other trip in the world like it. Register today at: <https://tri.ps/iaTxR>

A New Way of Seeing the World

Travel is more than visiting new places – it's about gaining new perspective. The moment we step away from routine, we become more present. We notice details we'd usually overlook; unfamiliar flavors, new rhythms of life, and how big and connected the world really is.

Travel teaches lessons no classroom can. It builds patience when plans change, empathy when cultures differ, and confidence when we navigate the unfamiliar. Often, the most memorable moments aren't planned at all – a wrong turn, a shared laugh with a stranger, or a quiet meal in a local café.

Food, conversation, and everyday experiences offer powerful insights into how people live and what they value. Through these small encounters, travel helps us understand others – and ourselves – more deeply. When we travel thoughtfully, respecting local cultures and environments, we leave a positive impact behind. And when we return home, we carry more than memories. We bring back fresh perspective, renewed curiosity, and a greater appreciation for the world around us.

Travel isn't about how far you go – it's about how fully you engage.

Travel Tip – Forbes Daily

If you're planning on flying soon, you may want to get to the airport early.

As the partial government shutdown drags into its second month, at least 366 TSA agents across the country have quit, according to the Department of Homeland Security—leading to staffing shortages and longer security lines. On Thursday morning, waits hit 90 minutes at Atlanta's Hartsfield-Jackson airport and more than three hours at Houston's George Bush Intercontinental.

Please stay healthy and happy. I'm looking forward to the great times we will have together again with my Team on one of the fabulous tours we are planning for 2026. All the best to you, Peter
